

System Patching and Vulnerability SOP

This SOP defines timelines for applying security patches to servers, network appliances, and developer workstations.

Critical patches must be applied within 72 hours of release. High-risk patches must be applied within 14 days.

A vulnerability scan must be conducted weekly. Identified risks must be logged and tracked in the security registry.

System rollback plans must be prepared prior to patch deployment to ensure high availability in case of deployment failure.