

Employee Performance Evaluation Guidelines

Performance reviews are conducted annually in Q4. Goals are set collaboratively at the start of the fiscal year.

Reviews are designed to support professional growth, outline performance improvements, and determine merit-based compensation changes.

We provide regular feedback cycles to ensure transparency and accountability. Managers are required to check in bi-weekly.

Promotions and salary adjustments are based on performance, budget availability, and market competitiveness.